

In His Time

P. J. Batza

1. There will be times when the cross we bear seems more than we can en-
 2. Strug - gles en - vel - op us ev - 'ry day; and sor - rows dar - ken the
 3. Soon, one sweet day, I will walk with Him. My cup o'er - flow - ing the

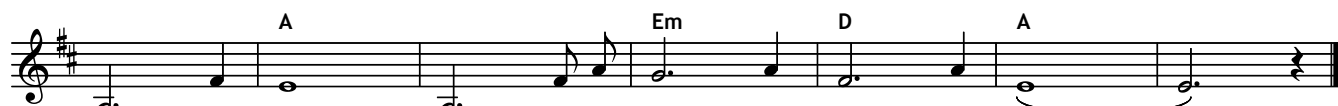

- dure. And though trou - bles a - ssail me and weigh me down, my way. Yet I know, have no doubt, there's a day I've found when brim. At His feet, glad - ly cast - ing, with - out re - serve, the heart's at peace and se - cure. To know Him, To know vic - t'ry cries will re - sound. Be faith - ful, Be faith-crown which I ne'er de - serve. I Love Him, I Love

- Him, who hath power to calm the ra - ging storm. But trust ful, till the end He'll stand with you my friend. He's Co-Him, oh to dwell where peace and joy are known. I'll see

- Him, But trust Him, In His Time pure gold to form.
 ming, He's Co - Him, In His Time all things to mend.
 Him, I'll see Him; In His Time u - pon The Throne.

In Time.