

All the world is changed

All the world is changed and all is new
A song of life and hope, because of You
All glory power and honour are yours for evermore
In the morning light, an empty tomb
And fear turns to joy, because of You
*All glory power and honour are yours for evermore,
forever*

*You are the first, the last, the living one
Ten thousand angels bow before your throne
King of Kings, Lord of Lords, Risen One
We are here to praise You
Yours is the kingdom and authority
Yours is the power and the victory
King of Kings, Lord of Lords, Risen One
We are here to praise You*

In the desert place, new life shall spring
For your kingdom rule is breaking in
All glory power and honour are yours for evermore
And now where faith is found, and the Spirit burns
Your resurrection life is born in us
*All glory power and honour are yours for evermore,
forever*

You are the first, the last...

Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah
Hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah
Let all rejoice
*All glory power and honour are yours for evermore
All glory power and honour are yours for evermore,
forever*
