

All Around

P. J. Batza

♩ = 86

1. In the fros - ty mor - ning fields, and the sun - ny warmth noon
2. See the beau - ty of new snow, and the mid - night' star - ry
3. When the meek o'er - come the proud, and the moon the sun - light
4. In the pow - er you dis - play, to poor souls in dis - a - yields, In the pri - sm sun - set wields; All A - round I see the glow, hear - ing peace in streams that flow; All A - round I see the shrouds, seeds that har - vest where I've plowed; All A - round I see the rray, those who ha - ted you now say; All A - round I see the Lord. Sha - dows of a tow' - ring tree, Nor - thern Lights cas - cade so Lord. In a hur - ri - canes fierce dash, and the light - nings fire - ry Lord. Mar - vel in the fire - fly's glow, pain - ted moths that flut - ter Lord. Look at those now called and taught, and the peace brought souls who free, how the moon can move the sea; All A - round you see The Lord.

 flash, migh - ty waves that leap and crash; All A - round you see The Lord.
 so, birds and trees the sea - sons know; All A - round you see The Lord.
 fought, in the vic - t'ry Cal - v'ry wrought; All A - round you See The Lord.